INTRODUCTION.

Perhaps some who may become the possessor of this little book may desire to know more of its author than might be observed by a casual reading of its record pages, and of his reasons for undertaking the work. I will explain first that my grandmother was the youngest child of Daniel and Jennette McArthur, who are the original parents of this vast family recorded in these pages. I remember her when she lived in our home when I was about ten years old.

My mother was her oldest daughter, whose maiden name was Jennette McArthur Bone. She married my father, Matthew Sikes, in Bibb County, Ga., January 1, 1846. Five sons and four daughters were born to them; all are living at this writing except our oldest sister who died after she had married and bore a large family of children. I am the youngest of our family except one brother. At this writing I am fifty years old. For fifteen years past I have been serving as a Primitive Baptist minister; in my travels I have met quite a number of our McArthur relatives. I had the good fortune to secure some old family records, and from this, I, being encouraged by others, undertook the tedious task of searching out the various families of this relationship. A few of them I have been unable to locate, but will here ask all who know of any one of this family not herein recorded to notify me of this fact.

Affectionately,

THOMAS EUGENE SIKES,

Ocilla, Ga.

EXPLANATION.

This record is designed not only to locate the McArthur relation, but to record them in such order as to enable any one to determine just what relation they are to any other herein named. Daniel McArthur and his wife, Jennette, are the first generation mentioned, their children are the second, the grandchildren are the third, etc. The children of brothers and sisters we call first cousins, the children of first cousins we call second cousins, etc. So the third generation are first cousins, the fourth generation are second cousins, the fifth generation are third cousins and so on.

The form of the record shows each generation separately, beginning with the oldest. To illustrate, we record the family of the oldest child of Daniel McArthur and then the next oldest until all the third generation are recorded. We then record the fourth generation in the same order, going back to the oldest to begin.

By studying the form of the records a little you may be able to fully comprehend the whole family. There may be some errors in names as you might well suppose, having to collect them from every source possible, but I have used care and diligence to have them correctly recorded. I have referred but little to the lives of those who are recorded since to do so would have required much space and cost. The time and expense in searching out the hundreds of names and addresses has been so great that we were forced to reduce the bulk of printing to a minimum to keep the cost of the book from being too high.

Some Family Characteristics.

There seems to be quite a prominent vein of quiet humor or "dry wit" extending through this relationship. Few of them will participate in loud, boistrous jesting, while they delight in short unassuming witty expressions.

Quite a noticable attachment to the family relationship seems to prevail and a decided mark of "blood pride" exists.

The late Dr. Daniel P. McArthur, of Bibb County, Ga., remarked in the presence of the writer, that he had never known a stain of character to fall upon a female in whose veins coursed any McArthur blood.

Old bachelors and old maids appear quite prominent all through the generations.

Ordinarily the McArthurs are very social and hold their friends in high esteem, but they are quick to resent an injury and their suspicions of wrong is easily aroused.

Quite a number of the McArthurs aspire to office and as a rule have been very successful in politics so far as my knowledge extends. While the McArthurs are to be found in almost every avocation, quite a number of them are professional men as doctors, lawyers and teachers.

Religious Inclinations.

While the Scotch families usually are under Presbyterian influences, my observation is that the McArthurs are only a few of them of that persuasion.

Of the ten families springing from the seven sons and three daughters of Daniel and Jennette McArthur, we will mention the religious inclinations of some of them. The descendants of Charles McArthur, residing mostly in Telfair and Montgomery Counties, are in general Episcopal Methodists.

Those of John McArthur residing in Middle and North Georgia are largely Primitive Baptists.

Quite a number of the living descendants of Alexander McArthur, residing in North Carolina, I learn are Universalists.

My grandmother, Isabella McArthur's descendants for the past thirty years have been largely Primitive Baptists. They live mainly in South Georgia. I am not familiar with the profession of the other families, but am led to believe that many of the descendants of Peter McArthur are Missionary Baptists.

Casual Notes.

An old letter has been sent me by Miss Carrie McArthur, of Marquez, Texas, written by Malcolmb McDonald from Sumter County, Ala., bearing date July 15th, 1836. It will be remembered that he was the husband of Sarah McArthur, the second daughter of Daniel McArthur. This letter was written to his two brothers-in-law, Allen McArthur and Richard Bone, who lived at that time in Bibb County, Ga., Websterville, Post Office. They had left North Carolina sometime before and he had only been in Alabama a few months. I give some extracts from this letter:

“I have not heard from N. C. since I left there. However I suspect that is occasioned by the mails not running, but I am in hopes we will hear from them before long, as it is supposed that the Indian War is nearly closed.” He tells at length of the new and coming country, says it will produce “30 bushels of corn to the acre and 1,000 lbs. of cotton.” At that writing all produce was high, “corn $1.50 to $2.00 per bushel; bacon, $20.00 to $25.00 pr. cwt.; molasses, $1.00 pr. gallon.”

He said: “January is pay day in this country. It makes no difference when you buy anything here, there is no money called for until January next. You may go into any town or country shop and there purchase to the amount of any sum; there is nothing said about pay until January, if they have never seen you before. Your name is asked, they book it down, ask the County and State you live in and that is all that is required until January.''

He was urging his brothers-in-law to move to Alabama, and said he had written Neil McArthur, of North Carolina, also to get him to move there. We give space to these extracts as relating to the family of Sarah McArthur McDonald, whose descendants have not yet been located and consequently are not given the regular mention in these records.

Of the sixty-four grandchildren of Daniel McArthur, only six survive at this writing, viz.: Miss Rebecca McArthur, Fayetteville, N. C.; John McArthur, Cordele, Ga.; Willis P. McArthur, Doerun, Ga.; F. M. McArthur, Dothan, Ala.; Miss Carrie and Charles McArthur, Marquez, Texas; Mrs. Elizabeth Sikes having died since we began the preparation of this work.

Later—Charles McArthur of Marquez, Texas, died December 8th, 1910.

APPENDIX.

We give the following sketches of other branches of the McArthur family. We have not been able to trace a direct connection between these and our regular line which came down from Daniel and Jennette McArthur, but it is likely that all are related far back up the line of ancestry.

It is quite noticable that the descendants of Donald McArthur bear the same family names as those of Daniel.

There is no name in Hardin County so closely associated with the pioneer history of Ohio as that of McArthur and though the ancestor of the family that settled this County was only an uncle to Gen. Duncan McArthur, the man who made the name historic, yet his descendants were prominent in founding civilization around the head waters of the Scioto, the source of which was discovered by Gen. Duncan McArthur.

Donald McArthur was born in Scotland, November 8th, 1742, and died in McDonald Trop, Hardin County, Ohio, January 10th, 1835, at the age of 92 years. He was twice married; by his first wife, was the father of three children, viz.: Daniel, who remained in Scotland, John and Margaret. By his second wife, the following children—Duncan and David in Scotland, Nancy, Archibald, Peter C. and Margaret in America. The first Margaret fell from the vessel on the voyage across and was drowned and the next daughter born being named Margaret in honor of the dead girl. On reaching America the family settled near Albany, N. Y. From there they moved to Chillicothe, Ohio (Ross County) where their well known relative then resided. In 1818, Peter C. McArthur came from Ross County to the head waters of the Scioto River and built a cabin in what is now McDonald Twp in Hardin County. He remained a short time and returned to Chillicothe, intending to bring his family, but rumors of an Indian outbreak at that time caused them to remain for the present in the older settlement. Early in 1822 the whole McArthur family came to the newly erected Hardin County, and settled on the land where Peter C. had built the cabin four years previously.

Of the children who came here—John married Jane McMartin in Scotland, the day before leaving for America, and became the father of the following children, viz.: Daniel, who died unmarried in 1849; Duncan, who died leaving one daughter; John, who married Margaret A. Wallace, of Ross County, Ohio. He died September 19th, 1863, leaving three daughters and one son: Daniel R. McArthur, who still owns and lives on the old McArthur estates in McDonald Twp, Hardin County, Ohio; Allen F. McArthur, the first white child born in Hardin County, married Ellen Dunlap who still survives, and lives in Kenton, Ohio, and Joseph, who left no children. The father, John Sr., was the first county commissioner. He was a man of ordinary size and light complexion, possessing the faculty of getting and keeping money, and was therefore one of those successful pioneers who leave to their descendants handsome estates.

Duncan, the oldest son of Donald and Catharine McArthur, did not remain in the County. David and Archibald died unmarried. Nancy married Jonathan Carter, first treasurer of Hardin County. Peter C., the youngest son of Donald and Catharine McArthur, and the first permanent settler of Hardin County, married Mariah Griffin, of Logan County; he was the father of a large family, three sons being killed in the Union Army. Peter C. was a man of good education, and in 1837, taught the first school in that part of Hardin County.

The family were originally Presbyterians, but in those early days, two ministers from the Methodist Episcopal Church held services at the home of Donald McArthur, and finally the family became members of that church.

Duncan McArthur, eighth governor of Ohio, was born in Dutchess County, N. Y., in 1772. While he was yet young his parents moved to the Western part of Pennsylvania. When he was 18 years old he enlisted under Gen. Harmer for the Indian Campaign. His conduct and bravery won worthy laurels, and upon the death of commander he was chosen to that position, although the youngest man in the Company. At this time the Indian atrocities alarmed the settlers, and caused him to be appointed one of the three patrols of the Kentucky side of the Ohio River to give alarm to the scattered cabins in case of danger. This was during the summer of 1793. General Massie again secured his services, this time as assistant surveyor. He was thus engaged for several years, during which time he assisted in platting Chillicothe. He purchased a large tract of land, and succeeded in making it one of the finest estates in Ohio, which reputation it still retains. In 1805, he was a Colonel of an Ohio regiment, and accompanied General Hull to Detroit in 1813. At Hull's surrender, he was a prisoner, but being released on parole, returned to Ohio in a state of indignation over his commander's stupidity. Soon after this he was sent to Congress. Soon after he was released from parole by exchange, resigned his seat in Congress and entered the army as Brigadier General under General Harrison, and the following year, succeeded him as commander of the Northwestern forces. At the termination of the war he was immediately returned to the State Legislature. He occupied State offices until 1822, when he was again sent to Congress. Serving one term, he declined re-election. In 1830, he was elected governor of Ohio. When his term expired he decided to enjoy life as a citizen on his farm, "Fruit Hill," and lived there in contentment until 1840, when he died.

MARY McARTHUR AUSTINE.

Through the kindness of Mrs. William H. Smith, nee Miss Mattie McArthur, of Gaffney, S. C., I have received some points of history of her family which I will here append to our regular work. It is quite likely that this family is related to us through one or the other branches, as it will be remembered that Daniel and Jennette McArthur represented two distinct McArthur families in Scotland. And we are advised that the family here given came over from Scotland, but we are not informed as to the date of their removal to America. We trace the family from Abram McArthur, who had three sons: William, David and Walter. William was born January 25th, 1756. The birth of his father and brothers are not reported. William married Isabella Carson, January 25th, 1791. The family lived first in America in Pennsylvania, near Gettysburg, which City was named for a Mr. Gettis, who was a brother-in-law of William McArthur. In later years William McArthur moved to Gaston County, N. C., near Gastonia.

William McArthur's children were Elizabeth, Abraham, Nancy, John C., Mary, Isabella, Rebecca S., Sarah L. and Mijamiss. Mary and Isabella were twins.

Abraham McArthur had one son, O. P., born June 13th, 1822, who was the father of Mrs. William H. Smith, to whom I am indebted for this record. John McArthur, of Glen Springs, S. C., is also a descendant of William McArthur.

The name of this family was once confounded with McArter, and Abraham McArthur sent back to Scotland to get the correct name, and it was established as McArthur. I am not advised as to the present location of only a few members of this branch of the McArthurs.

There is also a family of McArthurs living in Montgomery County, Ga., which have been somewhat known to the writer since his childhood. We are not advised as to where their ancestry came from and can give only a meagre account of them.

The older members, as I recall them, were John J., James, John W., Alexander and Duncan. The first two were brothers, and the last three. The two families are cousins. John J. died several years back; his wife and only child are also dead. John W. died during the present year (1910), leaving some family. Dr. J. Henry McArthur and William T. are two of his sons. Alexander McArthur has been ordinary of Montgomery County for perhaps thirty years and was clerk of the court for a term of years before he was elected ordinary.
