Notes for GEORGE LESLIE, OF DRUMBARROW 1ST LAIRD AIKENWAY:

Also known as George Leslie of Drumbarrow. He was made by his father, George 1st Earl of Rothes, Captain of the Castle of Rothes.

As George Leslie of Dunberach, he is listed as one of the Baillies in a precept of sasine given to John Grant of Freuchie on the lands of Nether Achinquhorsk, at Elgin 16 April 1505 [House of Grant, II, p 440]

At Elgin on 29 June 1509, as George Lesly, Captain of Rothes, and with Thomas Lesly, prebend of Kingussie, he was listed among the witnesses to a Charter made by John Cuming of Ernshed, in favour of John Grant of Freuchie. [House of Grant, III, pp. 49-50; also RMS II #3369]. Also on the same date and place, the same witnesses are listed in a Charter made by John Grant of Fruchy in favour of John Cuming of Irnshed. [EMS II, #3373].

On 8 September 1516, along with Beroald Leslie, Prebend of Elgin, he is listed among the witnesses as, George Leslie, captain of Rothes, to a notarial instrument made between John Grant of Fruchy and John Cumings of Ernshed at the parish church of Duthill. [House of Grant, III, p.365]

On 3 June 1522 he wadset 3/4 of his lands of Drumbarrow to Robert Wentoun for 300 merks [GD 204/661] and the wadset was still held by him in 1529; and on 16 June 1529 he resigned the remaining 1/4 part of the lands of Drumbarrow into the hands of his superior, his grand-nephew, George, Earl of Rothes at the Castle of Ballinbreach in Fife [GD 204/663]

On 10 August 1530, George of Drumbarrow was granted the feu on the lands of Aikenway, as well as the fishing at the Bridge of Spey, by Master Gavin Lesly, Rector of the Parish Church of Rothes, holding of the Rectors of the Church of Rothes as superior, [GD 204/686.

His seal is to be found attached to document GD 204/662 and appears as a bend sinister, charged with three buckles. This is a mirror image of the usual Leslie bearing and probably indicates his inability to inherit property. It seems however that he had a legitimate marriage as his oldest son had no difficulty in inheriting property and bearing the usual Leslie arms.

There is an entry in the Register of the Secret Seal [III, #2875], that a precept of legitimation was issued to "Georgii Leslie, bastardi, filii naturalis Georgii Leslie de akinwa" on 22 July 1584. No other record of this son, George has been located. Perhaps this is the name of one of the illegitimate sons named in the "Laurus Lesleana".

Notes for ANNE GRANT:

Anna Grant was the daughter of Duncan Grant of Mullahard, Chief of Clan Chattan.

Children of GEORGE LESLIE and ANNE GRANT are:

Notes for WILLIAM LESLIE, 2ND LAIRD OF AIKENWAY:

William Leslie 2nd Laird of Aikenway's seal is attached to a document which is in the Grant Muniments and is numbered GD 248/7/310. It bears the usual arms of Leslie, that of a bend "dexter" charged with three buckles.

William was one of the witnesses to his father's resignation of the lands of Drumbarrow at Rothes 24 March 1528/29 and at Darnaway on 4 June 1534, as William Leslie "de Cawclaroquhy" he was one of the witnesses to a charter made by James Dunbar of Tarbart in favour of John Corbet of Easter Ard and Marjory Dunbar, his wife regarding the lands of Arbol in the sheriffdom of Inverness. [RMS III #1430]

William Leslie of Culclaroquhy is listed as bailie for Master Gavin Leslie, rector of Rothes in the precept made in favour of William's brother, John Leslie in Ardcannie on the lands at the Bridge of Spey, dated at Elgin 15 October 1537. [GD 248/2044/3]

William served on the assize at Forres, and also one held at Westfield on 20 December 1557 regarding the relief of the lands of Westfield, which were owned by Sir Alexander Dunbar of Westfield and Patrick his son and heir apparent. [Re. Mag. Sig., IV 31238]

There is an entry in the Register of the Privy Council, dated 29 September 1573, [VI, #2141 .403] in which it is stated that William along with Alexr Urquhard of Burrisyairdis [both deceased] had not been relieved by Sir Alexr Dunbar of Cumnock "as sureties for him for the sum of 300 merks at the hands of George Dunbar of Aweik."

It appears that after his marriage to Margaret Winton, one of the heiresses of Cockclarachie, who died December 1532 after bearing him George born 1528 and Agnes who married Robert Leslie 1st of Ruddarie, William used the title "Cockclarachie".

Notes for JAMES LESLIE, REVEREND:

The Reverend James Leslie was unmarried and died on 20 March 1858. He claimed the Representation of the Leslie Family of Aikenway, Leslie of Cults, Garden of Bruckles, Reid of Pitfoddels, and through his grandmother Jean Forbes of Ludquharn, the family of Forbes of Ludquharn and the Title Lord Dunkeld, Galloway's of Dunkeld, and finally Lord Lindores, although I can see no obvious connection for those two claims. When he died on 20 March 1858, the previous claims were taken up by his nephew, Alexander Leslie of Birkwood.

I have in my possession a large silver chalice decorated in grapes and lined with gold, in a vellum lined box, that was presented to The Rev James Leslie in 1804 by Lady McDonald, for services rendered. JBL 20th Dec 2001.

He had claimed the title of Lord Lindores along with the Rev William Leslie 4th of Balnakeith and when the Rev William Leslie's son, Archibald, withdrew his claim, he tried to get support for his claim. His relationship to Patrick 1st Lord Lindores was that he was his 4th cousin 3 times removed.

He married ELEANOR FALCONER ATLEE 08 Jul 1823 in Middlesex England. She was born Abt. 1800 in Middlesex England.

Notes for ARCHIBALD LESLIE, 5TH OF BALNAGEITH:

Archibald spent a great part of his childhood at his uncle's home, Barrogill Castle in Caithness. He attended school in Forres, following which he attended Aberdeen University till 1808.

He then left for London where he hoped to accumulate a great deal of money and also to proceed in his father's claim to the title of Lord Lindores.

On the 3rd December 1842 he was served heir to his father in the lands of Balnageith and in 1843 he advertised Balnageith for sale. The proceeds were used to repay the debts of his firm.

Archibald and his family took up residence in Edinburgh where he died in 1851. Although his wife was a Roman Catholic, he was not, but on his death bed he agreed to "profess the tenants of the Old Obedience" and he was laid to rest in the Roman Catholic section of Grange Cemetery.

After Archibald's death his wife Eleanor became a Tertiary of an Order of nuns and an inmate of St Margaret's Nunnery in Edinburgh.

As well as his daughter Eleanor, Archibald also had a son who became a Jesuit priest, another daughter "who took the veil" and another daughter who "took the veil" as well.

The Leslie's of Balnageith had claimed the Representation of the Leslie Family of Aikenway and on the death of Archibald Leslie in 1851, Alexander Leslie of "Birkwood" claimed the Representation of the Leslie's of Aikenway, unchallenged, although his Great Uncle, Rev James Leslie born 1764 had previously claimed the Representation of the Leslie's of Aikenway.

Dear Mr Leslie

Miss V.G.S. Cornish-Browne - executry

We regretfully advise that Miss C-B died on 15/1/02.

The service of Thanksgiving for Miss C-B's life was held in Gilcomston South Church, Union Street, Aberdeen and was very fulfilling. The interment followed in Springbank Cemetery. There were at least one hundred mourners at the funeral.

We enclose an envelope with three letters and a newspaper cutting, all for your attention.

Miss C-B certainly valued your visit to her at Hawkhill Nursing Home last year.

Yours sincerely.

Philip Gauld
