We Are The Scottish Society of Louisville...

Established in 1993 as a nonprofit organization to enrich the cultural lives of members in the Kentuckiana area.

The Society offers exposure to Scottish heritage and preserves, enhances and fosters pride in our Scottish Ancestry.

The Society sponsors local and regional activities and is a nonsectarian organization with no religious affiliation.

*FROM THE PRESIDENT
Bruce Wilson*

Hello Fellow Inmates,

I sincerely hope all of you are doing well, and practicing good and healthy precautions during this pandemic. It seems like years since we have seen one another. I miss you all.

Thanks to all of you who took the time to vote for our new commissioners, and I hope that everyone got to vote who wanted to do so.

For now, we are still unable to get together, and we will install our new commissioners at our next members' meeting.

It won't be long (I hope), before we are back together again.

Sincerely, Bruce Wilson

Grandfather Mountain Highland Games

I must inform you that the Board of Trustees has taken a unanimous vote to cancel the 2020 Grandfather Mountain Highland Games. This was to have been our 65th Anniversary and it is difficult to find words to adequately express my sadness and disappointment at this outcome. The provisions contained in the April 23, 2020 statement from NC Governor's office make it impossible to even set up for the event.

Our decision was driven by several factors, but primarily we could not gain any reasonable guarantee that we would be permitted to gather in a group of more than 50, nor that I would be safe to do so in July of this year given that we still have limited testing and no vaccines.

Even with the cancellation for this year we will incur substantial costs. We intended to honor our scholarship commitments, our previously executed deal for purchase of 90 new clan tents,, warehousing and basic maintenance and operating fees to keep MacRae Meadow in the sort of shape that we have all come to love.

The Grandfather Mountain Highland Games is a significant source of funding for our entertainers, pipe bands, vendors, civic, fire departments and local part time employees that help with the set up and tear down each year. This year has been a disaster for many of those fine folks and we feel terrible for them.

We promise that with your help and support our 65th Anniversary in 2021 will be a spectacular time.

Steve Quillin, President, GMHG

<http://www.gmhg.org/>

My Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic

Until the health crisis is over, we should not meet. The church has closed for the foreseeable future, and we can't gather together except on email. All meetings are canceled until further notice.

Be smart & be safe

*Bruce Wilson
President*

The Scottish Society of Louisville

The above excerpt is taken from a letter posted on the Grandfather Mountain Highland Games website.

Glasgow Guacamole

By Robbin Goodin

Ingredients

- ◆ 4 ripe avocados- diced
- ◆ 3 Roma tomatoes-diced
- ◆ 1 tsp cumin
- ◆ 3-4 shakes garlic salt
- ◆ 3-4 shakes garlic powder
- ◆ 5-6 shakes of red pepper flakes or crushed red pepper
- ◆ 1 lime-juiced

Directions

Mash the diced avocados a bit to your liking. (I like to leave some chunks and have a lot of mashed for hub). Add diced tomatoes and mix. Then add about 1 tsp cumin, 3-4 shakes each of garlic salt and powder. Add 5-6 shakes of red pepper flakes. Squeeze the lime in until it is dry. Mix well and serve VERY soon.

REMEMBER: all spices are to YOUR taste, so feel free to tweak this recipe to suit your pallet.

Editor's Note: This was prepared for us at a picnic at Janice Beatty's camp site following the Glasgow Scottish Games last year. Robbin Goodin fixed this dish and it was outstanding. I asked what she called it and named it that night as Glasgow Guacamole. Thanks for sharing the recipe.

Greetings to all you fine people,

BEGINNER LEVEL

Citing and Identifying Genealogical Records Properly

The key to long term research success is having the ability to properly identify and cite the records you're using. This involves understanding the correct application of the record being examined and recording an accurate description and citation. Since it is common for genealogists to backtrack and review previous research as they progress through the process, this is especially important for timely retrieval of information.

It is not uncommon for genealogical record types may have multiple variations in scope and meaning. These variations may directly impact where the particular item is found. For example, there are amultiple types of marriage records. If the term "marriage record" is all you write down on your research or correspondence log or notes, it will be a time consuming process to identify the precise record later. Here are 9 of the most common variations of a "marriage record":

- 1. Marriage Bond: Statement by knowledgeable parties testifying that there were no legal obstacles to the marriage taking place.*
- 2. Marriage License Application and License: Usually filed and issued by the county.*
- 3. Prenuptial Agreement: Sometimes also known as a Marriage Contract*
- 4. Civil Marriage Registration: Taken from the original register.*
- 5. Civil Marriage Certificate: Information is usually copied on the form by court clerk.*
- 6. Church Record of Bann: Announcement of the intention of two people to get married.*

- 7. Church Register record of Marriage*
- 8. Newspaper Clippings: May be an announcement of an upcoming wedding or an account of wedding that has already occurred including some pictures.*
- 9. Wedding Related Records*
  - a. Invitation: Invitation would identify the couple, date and place of the event.*
  - b. Programs: The program is like a schedule given to guests to follow the ceremony.*
  - c. Album: The album would contain pictures of the ceremony, bride, groom, etc.*
  - d. Guestbook: The guest book would contain the names of people who attended the ceremony.*

The following elements are considered crucial for proper citation of any type of documentation. For example, if you visit a library, courthouse, or other type of repository, the necessity of having the pieces of information listed below will be crucial for long term success and obtaining the most efficient assistance from staff or volunteers when necessary.

- 1. Complete name of author or person who gave you the information*
- 2. Complete title of the book, microform, DVD, CD, etc.*
  - a. Note: Many experts recommend making a copy of the title page and verso as an added precaution*
- 3. Date of publication*
- 4. ISBN number*
- 5. Call or film/fiche number of item*
- 6. Relevant page number(s)*
- 7. Name of repository where item was located*
- 8. Name of staff member who assisted you*
- 9. Brief summation about the source, as in what was its research value for your project.*

For more information on this topic, the following links from Family Search Wiki will provide useful information in greater detail:

INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED LEVEL

Apprenticeship and Indentured Servitude Agreements

Apprenticeship agreements, also referred to as indentured servitude contracts, were common in the British Isles and later in Colonial America. An apprenticeship is defined as a service or condition in which a person is gaining instruction in a trade or art, under legal agreement. Historically, an apprentice served for a specified period of time varying from 7-10 years. While most apprentices began as children, some as young as ten years of age, circumstances such as helping pay for passage to the New World resulted in some adults in their 20s entering into these agreements as well. Apprentices often came from the economically poor levels of English and European society. Many were orphans who were bound out by a county court until the age of 18 for men and 21 for women.

The system of apprenticeship first developed in the late Middle Ages and was supervised by craft guilds and town governments. A master craftsman was entitled to employ young people as an inexpensive form of labor in exchange for providing food, lodging and formal training in the craft. While most apprentices were males, researchers may encounter female apprentices in fields such as seamstress, tailor, cordwainer, baker and stationer. In England, the Statute of Apprentices in 1563 made it illegal for anyone to enter a trade if they had not first served an apprenticeship.

Depending on the time period, place, and jurisdiction, these agreements may be labeled apprenticeship agreements or indentured servitude contracts. Some apprenticeships were privately arranged and there is no documentation, but many indentures were officially recorded in court records. Indentures were legal agreements and could be recorded even if the child served an apprenticeship under the father or a close family member. Information found in apprentice and indentured servitude agreements may include:

- 1. Apprentice's name*
- 2. Name of craftsman or business entity responsible for agreement (might be individual craftsman, court appointed or private attorney dealing with indentured contracts, person, business entity, church parish or* charity)

- 3. Names of parents or guardians (sometimes place of residence if known)*
- 4. Name of wife and any children (if applicable)*
- 5. Length of indenture term*
- 6. Trade to be learned*
- 7. Whether the apprentice was literate and/or allowed to attend school*

If your ancestor engaged in a trade, you will want to look for indenture records in the appropriate locality. Often they are with the deeds, but may be found in probate or orphans' court records, with guardianships. You may find them in books labeled "Minute Books". In some New England towns, they may be in the town records.

Not all apprenticeships ran smoothly. Runaways were not uncommon and advertisements in local newspapers often named and described the absent apprentice. Not all indenture records are for true apprenticeships. Some record an agreement whereby a child, usually of a poor family, was "bound out" either to earn an income for the family, or to provide for the child if the family could not or if the child was orphaned.

Information For Our New Members

Welcome to our new members. Coming into a new group can be a little scary, but know that if you have any questions, just ask. The people in the SSL are some of the friendliest you would ever want to meet. Here is a little bit of information to get you started:

- ◆ Read the newsletter and the website. All upcoming events will be listed both places. If you want more information, you can contact any of the board members. Their information is found on page 2 of this newsletter.
- ◆ All meetings will have a business meeting, some time to socialize, and a program.
- ◆ January/February brings our Burns Night Dinner. You won't want to miss that. There will be food, drink, raffles, entertainment, and an all-around good time.
- ◆ May starts our "Event" season. The Society sets up a booth at many local and state Scottish and Celtic events, and even a couple of out-of-state events. Don't be afraid. Jump on in and help us in our booth. It's not hard, and everyone will help. It is a great way to get to know some of the members and recruit new members.
- ◆ November is a really fun meeting. We have a dinner and an auction. Members will be informed of what type of dish to bring according to last name. The auction is so much fun. Everyone is asked to bring at least one item, if they wish, to donate. Now, you will find that a lot of the items are things you would love to have, but some of them ... well, you just have to be there to appreciate it. Proceeds benefit the Heritage Fund, which helps promote the Celtic-related "studies" by individuals.
- ◆ In December, we do not have a meeting.

We hope that you will attend as many meetings as possible (hopefully all of them). We are so happy to have you as a part of the group.

Jim Hughes
Chairperson

Heritage Fund

The Heritage Fund Committee is accepting applications for the dispersal of scholarship funds. The Fund helps support the efforts of SSL members to pursue studies of the many different aspects of Celtic culture, which may include music (piping, drumming, fiddling, etc.), art (dancing, weaving, etc.), language (Gaelic, etc.) and athletics (Highland games).

This Fund can also support a person's interest in an educational program or project that furthers the understanding of Scottish culture and history.

Scottish Society members in good standing can apply for funds or can sponsor non-members for scholarships.

The application form and guidelines can be picked up on the evening of the Society's monthly meeting from the Heritage Fund Committee Chairperson, James Hughes, or by e-mail at vicepresident@scotsoflou.com, or by using the online form here.

The deadlines for receipt of applications are March 31st and September 30th.
