*FROM THE PRESIDENT
Bruce Wilson*

I want to say I hope everyone is staying safe, and well.

So far this has been a very trying time. But if everyone can remember to keep their distance from other people, we can weather the storm. We have been staying in touch with friends and family by calling and using Facebook. We have seen a record number of our neighbors out walking, riding bikes, and walking their dogs. Even the children we have seen outside are keeping their distance from each other. It gives me hope that all will eventually be well.

As most of you know, Christ Church United Methodist is closed, along with most other places. Until we can get into the church again, we will not be meeting. I will let you know by email when we can get back together.

The programs we miss will be moved to next year.

Until then, take care and be safe.

Sincerely, Bruce Wilson

My Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic

Until the health crisis is over, we should not meet. The church has closed for the foreseeable future, and, we can't gather together except on email. All meetings are canceled until further notice.

Be smart & Be safe

Bruce Wilson
President

BEGINNER LEVEL

Family Search Affiliate Libraries vs LDS Family History Centers

Family Search Affiliate Libraries offer genealogists the opportunity to search many limited-access Family Search databases. Public or university libraries, archives, museums, or genealogical societies can become Family History Library Affiliates. While library affiliates will have some limitations in terms of services and accessibility to some Family Search historical records due to copyright and licensing restrictions, the level of access available surpasses what can be achieved from home or from non-affiliate libraries.

If researchers encounter restricted access records, the librarian or local genealogy society volunteers on duty are trained to suggest possible alternative options and solutions that include providing the patron with contact information for the nearest LDS Family History Center. This information usually includes the director's name, phone number, email contact, and hours of operation. At the Fort Myers Regional Library, we also provide driving directions to the two nearest Family History Centers in our region.

A major benefit of being a library affiliate is access to additional digital records not available outside a Family History Center. These digital records include images and name indexes. Currently, there are about 400 million original records available in a digital format that affiliate libraries can access. Library affiliates also receive a monthly e-newsletter subscription for reference staff to stay abreast of what's new and the latest tips and tricks for supporting family history researchers.

The Family Search catalog uses icons to inform researchers concerning the accessibility of the records they are seeking.

1. A document icon means that the resource is only an indexed record or transcription of the document.

2. A camera icon means you can view the image of the original document from any web-enabled portable device.

3. A camera with a key icon indicates that access to an image is restricted, such as an image that can be seen only at a library affiliate or a Family History Center. If you encounter a record of this nature, the message will appear on the screen stating that access is restricted.

4. Wagon Wheel. When searching for a specific Family Search microfilm, you may encounter an icon resembling a wagon wheel. That could indicate a film in the process of being digitized or it may identify a film that is copyright restricted. If it is a restricted film, it normally contains a message to that effect and advised having to contact the nearest LDS Family History Center. If no message of this nature appears, check back to the site occasionally to see if the status has changed.

Family Search publishes copies of records only after gaining permission from the original record custodian (generally a government agency) and abiding by all the stipulated conditions and applicable laws. To remain in compliance with these agreements and standards, Family Search occasionally needs to adjust access to specific records. If you cannot find a record that was previously accessible, it is likely due to stipulations from the record custodians.

INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED LEVEL County Histories and Genealogical Research

County histories can provide valuable data to help researchers extend their research back to multiple generations. The term “county histories” can also include local or regional histories. The period between the early to mid-1800s through the early 1900s saw a significant number of county histories published, many of which covered the Eastern and Midwestern regions of the United States. The rise in popularity of genealogy in the 1970s triggered another spike in publishing county histories. In some cases, these were updates of earlier publications; in others, the county histories were the first-ever published for a given area.

County histories typically provide useful information on the settlement patterns of the locality and origins of the early settlers. They shed light on economic, educational, religious, and social conditions. While the quality and accuracy vary, this information is important to genealogists and historians. To properly conduct research, one must know something about the past. Even if some of the details are enhanced or some unpleasant events are “sanitized”, the basic facts and timelines usually are somewhat accurate.

The biggest issues with county histories usually involve the biographical sections, i.e., short historical sketches of prominent citizens and settlers. In some cases, biographical sections are long enough that they may be included in a separate volume. This can be a double-edged sword in terms of accuracy. On one hand, the information was often first-hand because it was provided by the families, close to the time the subject of the sketches was alive. The sketches were often accompanied by pictures. When accurate, this can be a bonanza of research information.

Many professionals caution users to take some of the information concerning profiles of individuals and families with a grain of salt because they often paid to be included in the county history. The publisher usually included the text verbatim from what was submitted by the person or family; therefore, much of the information is considered secondary research.

Don't be upset if your ancestor doesn't appear in the text. One must remember that in most cases, individuals and/or families had to pay to have their sketches included. However, many people could not afford this luxury, and not everyone wanted to be included for a variety of reasons. All surnames that your research indicates should have been in the area should be checked, including surnames of in-laws and siblings.

County histories also include information about businesses, churches, cemeteries, civic and social groups. The names mentioned may have enough historical context to identify occupation and social status.

Bryan Mulcahy

Glasgow Highland Games

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE 2020 GAMES

In light of the Coronavirus, the Glasgow Highland Games scheduled in May 2020 is being postponed. We are tentatively looking at the last weekend in August (the 28th, 29th, & 30th 2020) as an alternate date. As that time approaches, we will make the best and most responsible final decision.

Please check back here or on our Facebook page for further updates. Thank you for your support and understanding for this decision was not taken lightly. Please stay safe.

Information For Our New Members

Welcome to our new members. Coming into a new group can be a little scary, but know that if you have any questions, just ask. The people in the SSL are some of the friendliest you would ever want to meet. Here is a little bit of information to get you started:

- ◆ Read the newsletter and the website. All upcoming events will be listed both places. If you want more information, you can contact any of the board members. Their information is found on page 2 of this newsletter.
- ◆ All meetings will have a business meeting, some time to socialize, and a program.
- ◆ January/February brings our Burns Night Dinner. You won't want to miss that. There will be food, drink, raffles, entertainment, and an all-around good time.
- ◆ May starts our "Event" season. The Society sets up a booth at many local and state Scottish and Celtic events, and even a couple of out-of-state events. Don't be afraid. Jump on in and help us in our booth. It's not hard, and everyone will help. It is a great way to get to know some of the members and recruit new members.
- ◆ November is a really fun meeting. We have a dinner and an auction. Members will be informed of what type of dish to bring according to last name. The auction is so much fun. Everyone is asked to bring at least one item, if they wish, to donate. Now, you will find that a lot of the items are things you would love to have, but some of them ... well, you just have to be there to appreciate it. Proceeds benefit the Heritage Fund, which helps promote the Celtic-related "studies" by individuals.
- ◆ In December, we do not have a meeting.

We hope that you will attend as many meetings as possible (hopefully all of them). We are so happy to have you as a part of the group.

Jim Hughes
Chairperson

Heritage Fund

The Heritage Fund Committee is accepting applications for the dispersal of scholarship funds. The Fund helps support the efforts of SSL members to pursue studies of the many different aspects of Celtic culture, which may include music (piping, drumming, fiddling, etc.), art (dancing, weaving, etc.), language (Gaelic, etc.) and athletics (Highland games).

This Fund can also support a person's interest in an educational program or project that furthers the understanding of Scottish culture and history.

Scottish Society members in good standing can apply for funds or can sponsor non-members for scholarships.

The application form and guidelines can be picked up on the evening of the Society's monthly meeting from the Heritage Fund Committee Chairperson, James Hughes, or by e-mail at vicepresident@scotsoflou.com, or by using the online form here.

The deadlines for receipt of applications are March 31st and September 30th.
