PREFACE

THE Register of the Burgesses of the Burgh of the Canongate has been compiled from a Book of Records of the Ancient Privileges of the Canongate and from the Council Books of the Burgh which record the Acts and Statutes of the Bailies of the Canongate, Admission of Burgesses, Constables and Officers of Train Bands, and Copies of Charters.

An earlier volume dated from 1st October 1561 to 23rd October 1588 is missing, but extracts from it are to be found in the printed volume "Miscellany of the Maitland Club," vol. ii. There must also have been a volume from the latter date until the 27th June 1622 when the first admission of a burghess is recorded in this Register.

All that has been found for the years between 5th September 1677 and 5th October 1691 is a fragment of a page with the names of ten burgesses entered in August and September 1682.

Contractions used:—

B.—burghess.	by r. of—by right of.
Dec.—deceased.	w.—wife.
Dau.—daughter.	yr.—younger.
Pr.—apprentice.

If gratis is not mentioned, or a special reason is not given, the admission of burghess-ship is by purchase.
